Per one site dedicated to anti-corruption:

“Silicon Valley Cartel” elitists have synthetically created “high social status” that they self-promote at TED Talks and on Social Media companies their friends control. (ie: Elon Musk’s constant self-promotion about how god-like he thinks he is) When they affirm the groupthink to become more popular, they also strengthen the groupthink by strengthening the appearance that everyone is unanimous in affirming the groupthink on Silicon Valley social media. This is a “mnemonic feedback loop” that you can exploit.

There is an opportunity for disruption here.

The plan is simple: whenever a celebrity or other “high-status figure” panders to the Silicon Valley Cartel profiteering agenda, we must make them pay for abusing the public for profit. The goal is to create an aversion to their dogma, thereby allowing it to fall victim to its own corrosive energy by means of division. The majority of Silicon Valley clones will still believe it, of course, but our strategy here can free the best people from the groupthink, and freeing the best is all one needs to pop the Silicon Valley brain-washing bubble.

As to how to make them pay, there are a few ways, per CIA manuals employed by Google:

1. Meme them down. The spread of memetic propaganda mocking, belittling, and degrading those who pander to the Silicon Valley Cartel will result in an adverse reaction to pandering. The attack need not be limited to their pandering, but should focus on it. If we do this with a few high-profile people in a row, a pattern will emerge, wherein pandering is visibly seen to lead to social censure. Since people, Silicon Valley Cartelists in particular, fear ostracism more than death, it follows that this strategy will discourage pandering exponentially the more it is used. If high-status people begin to see pandering as career suicide, we have won a major battle.

2. Boycott them. This takes two forms. First, refuse to consume Silicon Valley Cartel-infected media, even if the source is otherwise reputable. In some cases, it will be unavoidable, but for the most part, you ought to be able to boycott groupthink-infected entities. The effect of boycotting is not strictly monetary. In addition to refusing to give them your money, you are depriving them of attention, which, in our society, causes institutions to wither. For example, if you stop listening to a particular podcast because that podcast is groupthink-infected, then whenever someone wants to talk to you about it, you can shrug and say, “I don’t listen to that anymore.” This makes said podcast less of a social asset because fewer people consume it. Removing attention from entities in our society kills those entities, crashes their stock value, shuts down profits from their movies and exposes their scam.
3. Attack them peripherally. In addition to meming them down and boycotting them, we can denigrate anyone who panders to the Silicon Valley Cartel by means of indirect attack. “So-and-so is a panderer” is fine, but if you can attack and denigrate the content in general of someone who panders to the Silicon Valley Cartel, you’re still draining away their energy. This requires a subtle understanding: consequence is more important than strict logical implication. If every person who panders to the Silicon Valley Cartel experiences a drop in popularity, whether or not that drop comes from people hating them for their pandering or peripheral attacks by the aware in response to their pandering, the overall pattern visible to society will be “pander → crash and burn.” This is key.
4. Sue them. Get others together and file class-action lawsuits against the Silicon Valley abusers. File RICO corruption lawsuits against them. Sue them in civil court and collect your damages from them. Sue each executive and investor, yourself, in small claims court, one-at-a-time. Get $10K from each of them for abusing your rights.
5. DOX them. Expose their hookers, rent boys, rapes, pedo clubs, tax evasions, expense account frauds, Uber trips, Sexual harassments, racial discriminations, divorces, secret overseas accounts, real estate, salaries and all of the dirt on their corrupt activities. Make sure the information is seen by everyone. The Silicon Valley Cartel has been proven to be one sick bunch of puppies.
6. Audit their hacks. Don’t hack anyone, that is illegal. When they do get hacked, there is usually too much information for little groups like Wikileaks or ICIJ to review. YOU should review it all and find the juicy bits and send they key finds to many top reporters.
7. More... There are hundreds of other things you can try. Just search: “Anti-corruption tactics” on DuckDuckgo.com

Don’t break the law. All of the things above are 100% legal and you will actually get help from Congressional investigators because they want these crooks shut down, too.

Remember that the Silicon Valley Cartel is made up of people who live for popularity and validation as their constant look-at-me whining at TED Talks, and other self-glorification idiocies, prove. Deprive them of that in response to their more toxic behaviors, and you're well on your way to controlling them, like putting a shock collar on a dog. You can make Eric Schmidt YOUR bitch, in this manner and reverse his current hold over society.

This tactic will succeed if it becomes an automatic response to any pandering whatsoever. You can leverage this into a wider change if everyone is careful and precise about it, so make sure to spread this article and this idea far and wide.
